The School of Nursing will use the highest grade of the two attempts to compute the Prerequisite GPA. The grades for the two attempts will not be averaged. Prerequisite courses may not be taken Credit/No Credit, unless satisfied by the appropriate Advanced Placement (AP) score. The School of Nursing does not implement a recency policy for the four science prerequisites (i.e., completed coursework does not expire).

The School of Nursing does not conduct TEAS testing and does not require the TEAS to be taken at SDSU. However, you can find information about testing at SDSU on the SDSU Testing Services website (http://studentaffairs.sdsu.edu/STAAR/). ATI Testing oversees all aspects of the exam itself, information for which can be found at http://atitesting.com/. HESI is not accepted in lieu of the TEAS.
